Clause 104(1) of the Company's Constitution states that an election of Director shall take place each year at the annual general meeting of the Company, where one-third of the Director for the time being, or, if their number is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office and be eligible for re-election, PROVIDED ALWAYS that Director shall retire from office once at least in each three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election. 5. Ordinary Resolution 5: Authority to Issue and Allot Shares pursuant to Sections 75 and 76 of the Companies Act 2016

The Ordinary Resolution 5, if passed, will empower the Directors of the Company to allot and issue new shares in the Company at any time, to such person or persons, upon such terms and conditions and for such purposes as the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, deem fit ("General Mandate"), provided that the number of shares issued pursuant to this General Mandate, when aggregated with the total number of any such shares issued during the preceding twelve (12) months, does not exceed 10% of the total number of issued shares of the Company at the time of issue. This General Mandate, unless revoked or varied at a general meeting, will expire at the conclusion of the next AGM of the Company.

The general mandate will provide flexibility for the Company for any possible fund-raising activities, including but not limited to further placing of shares, for the purpose of funding future investment project(s) workings capital and/or acquisitions at any time without convening a general meeting as it would be both costs and time consuming to organise a general meeting.

As of the date of this Notice, no new shares were issued by the Company pursuant to the General Mandate granted to the Directors at the 20th AGM held on 28 June 2024 and which will lapse at the conclusion of the 21st AGM of the Company.

Pursuant to Section 85 of the Companies Act 2016 read together with Clause 62 of the Company's Constitution, shareholders have pre-emptive rights to be offered any new shares in the Company which rank equally to the existing issued shares in the Company or other convertible shares.

Section 85(1) of the Companies Act 2016 provides as follows:

"85. Pre-emptive rights to new shares

- Subject to the Constitution, where a company issue shares which rank equally to existing shares as to voting or distribution rights, those shares shall first be offered to the holders of existing shares in a manner which would, if the offer were accepted, maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders.

Clause 62 of the Company's Constitution provides as follows:

"62. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, all new shares or other convertible securities shall, before they are issued, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of their rights in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or Securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or Securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or Securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or Securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may, likewise, also dispose of any new shares or Securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares of Securities bear to shares or Securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Clause.

The proposed Ordinary Resolution 5, if passed, will exclude your pre-emptive right to be offered new shares and/or convertible securities to be issued by the Company pursuant to the said Ordinary Resolution.
